KINGS HAVE NO LUCK

Head Man of Gypsy Band Goes to Work.

It's hard times for the kings. Constantine got let out, Nicholas was given the gate and then lost his head, Bulgaria is looking for its lost idol, and now Cleveland mourns its only king.
The head man, named King, of a band of Gypsies, this week got a job and passed up his duties watching the women of the camp do the work. The Gypsy leader was brought into court on a loafing charge and was told to get a job or the state would give him one behind the bars. He took the hunch from the judge and has started real work in a munition factory. His forsaken crown is vacant, as the others in the camp do not care for the chance of having to follow in his footsteps.

WITH THE HOME BOYS IN SERVICE

FROM A SAILOR BOY.

The following letter comes from Reamus Hawkins, a former Hardins-burg boy, who is in the navy and by now may be sailing the high seas as he says he expects to leave soon.
The letter is addressed to the sailor's brother, Pura Hawkins of Hardins-burg.

Dear Brother and All:—Will try tonight to write you all a few lines.
This leaves me well and all right, hope it finds you all the same.

Well I got out of Newport at last.
I have been here four days and believe me this is sure some good place. We get every night off until seven o'clock the next morning.
And from Saturday at noon until Monday morning at seven. I don't care how long I stay here but I don't think I will be here much longer.
Guess I will be gone by the time you get this letter. They told us this morning that we may be here three or four weeks and again we may leave tomorrow or the next day. I guess the next move I make will be across the pond. There are five-hundred They don't know where they are going, some think they are going to France.

Well, Pura have you ever heard from Iven? The last time I heard from him he said he was going to Camp Taylor.

Have you all cut any tobacco? I wish I was there to get something good to eat. We have plenty to eat but a fellow gets tired of the same thing all time. We have better to eat here than we did at Newport. We sleep here until six o'clock and at Newport we had to get up at five.

I am sending you one of my girl's pictures. Tell papa this is the one at Newport but there are some here in Philadelphia that have her beat.

Well, I don't know much to write this time so will close and go to bed.
Tell Ida Elizabeth and papa "hello." Will write again soon. Love to all.
Your brother, Reamus Hawkins.
Naval Yards, Barracks No. 258, Philadelphia, Penn.

Select Your Seed Corn

Mr. Good Farmer.

Farmers who are looking ahead and who remember the seed corn situation last spring are busy now selecting their seed corn in the field.
This corn will be well cared for and when planting time comes it will grow and make corn. Corn left in the crib all winter even if it germinates is weak and will produce a bar-ren stalk or fail to make as large a yield as well cared for seed. Go into your field to-day. Select well matured ears of good size from stalks of medium size, upright and that have had the same chance as others not producing so well. Be sure that the ear is true to type, well filled out and not sappy. Put the seed corn where it will dry out at once. Hang it up in racks, on strings or lay on loose floor, where the air can circulate around each ear. It will then get bone dry and the cold weather can't weaken or kill the germ.

Do this for yourself and your country. There won't be labor enough next spring to replant.

J. W. Harth, County Agent.

GERMANS EMULATE OLD BUCCANEERS

Shades of Captain Kidd!
We've known for some time that the Huns were piratical, but here's the first photographic evidence that they try to emulate the dress and bearing of the old buccanners of the Spanish Main. The accompanying photograph was taken in the German trenches shortly before an attack by United States marines. When the Hun of the be-pistoled belt and the fierce mustaches was captured by "devil dogs," the snapshot was taken of him. Incidentally, the piratical person, since forming the acquaintance of the Americans, is a much milder and meeker man.

LIBERTY DAY IS OCT. 12

President in Proclaiming Event Calls for Celebration.

Urges Citizens to Observe Day to Stimulate Generous Response to Fourth Loan.

Washington, Sept. 23.—President Wilson proclaimed Saturday, October 12, the four hundred and twenty-sixth anniversary of the discovery of America, as Liberty day, and called upon all citizens to celebrate it to stimulate a generous response to the fourth Liberty loan.

The president's proclamation follows:

"Every day the great principles for which we are fighting take fresh hold upon our thought and purpose and make it clearer what the end must be and what we must do to achieve it.
We now know more certainly than we ever knew before why free men brought the great nation and government we love into existence, because it grows clearer and clearer what supreme service it is to be America's privilege to render to the world. The anniversary of the discovery of America must therefore have for us in this fateful year a peculiar and thrilling significance. We should make it a day of ardent rededication to the ideals upon which our government is founded and by which our present heroic tasks are inspired.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, do appoint Saturday, the twelfth day of October, 1918, as Liberty day. On that day I request the citizens of every community of the United States, city, town and countryside, to celebrate the discovery of our country in order to stimulate a generous response to the fourth Liberty loan. Commemorative addresses, pageants, harvest home festivals or other demonstrations should be arranged for in every neighborhood under the general direction of the of the treasury and the immediate direction of the Liberty loan committee in co-operation with the United States bureau of education and the public school authorities. Let the people's response to the fourth Liberty loan express the measure of their devotion to the ideals which have guided the country from its discovery until now, and of their determined purpose to defend them and guarantee their triumph.

"For the purpose of participating in Liberty day celebrations all employees of the federal government throughout the country whose services can be spared may be excused on Saturday, the twelfth day of October, for the entire day.

"WOODROW WILSON.
By the President.

"ROBERT LANSING,
Secretary of State."

OLD CLOTHING FOR DESTITUTE BELGIANS

And French. 400 Tons To Be Gathered This Week
By Red Cross.

The Lake Division of the American Red Cross has set aside this week beginning Monday Sept. 23, and continuing until next Monday, to gather up old clothes and even worn out garments for the destitute men, women and children of Belgium and France.

A committee composed of ten Cloverport women has been appointed who will make a house to house canvas of this city this week to get worn out clothing for these destitutes. The committee is divided as follows: Mrs.
O. T. Odewalt, Chairman. East End
Mrs. Margaret Skillman, Miss Irene Jarboe and Miss Maydee Chapin.
Frances Smith. West End, Mrs.
Chas. Jackson and Mrs. C. S. Martin.
Hill Mrs. Chas. Satterfield and Mrs.
Marion Weatherholt. If any residents failed to be visited or should happen not to be at home when the members of this committee call, their donations may be brought to the Red Cross headquarters on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The Lake Division proposes to collect not less than 400 tons of old clothing. Every kind of garment for all ages and both sexes is urgently needed. Garments need not be in perfect condition.
